Phil Jonas and the European Tour

If you didn't already know, McCleery Golf Academy Teaching Professional Phil Jonas competed on the 2013 European Senior Tour. He travelled and competed in the Tour's thirteen events and still maintained teaching duties here in Vancouver.

Phil had three top 10 finishes in 2013 and earned more than $40,000 Euros. He finished the tour ranking 42nd on the European Senior Tour Money List.

While the European Tour was a focus for Phil in 2013 he also continued playing the Vancouver Golf Tour and the Srixon Golf Tour to keep his game sharp.

In between all this playing Phil Jonas continued teaching a full schedule of students at the McCleery Golf Academy focusing on developing elite junior golfers while helping all levels of player improve their golf games. He continues to enjoy teaching juniors as he was brought up in a very good junior program in South Africa and uses this experience to help juniors here in Vancouver realize their potential.

During his professional career he has been very honoured to play with Gary Player, Nick Faldo and Bobby Locke to name but a few and he bases much of his teachings on having played with 30 players who have won Majors.
